

Congratulations to our Louise Biely Yolles Scholarship winner!

Cheryl Ng

The Department of Anthropology is delighted to award the Louise Biely Yolles Scholarship to Cheryl Ng. The scholarship was established through a bequest by and named after York graduate and former McLaughlin College course instructor Louise Yolles (MA'80). It alternates every year between the Department of Anthropology and McLaughlin College and is awarded to an outstanding full time anthropology major who has completed 90 credits and has the highest CGPA.

Congratulations Cheryl for your impressive record of achievements. We wish you all the best in your future endeavours!

Department of Anthropology

